Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Ida Hardie has devoted her life to the betterment of her community, and [illegible] and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Ida Hardie reached her 90th birthday, which was an occasion of joy and celebration; and,

WHEREAS, Ida has given much to South Dakota during her lifetime and it is fitting that we honor Ida on this momentous occasion; and,

WHEREAS, on behalf of a state grateful for the benefits derived from Ida Hardie's years as a productive and outstanding citizen of South Dakota;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 7, 1987, as in South Dakota, and I join her many friends and relatives in wishing Ida a very happy birthday and many more years of health and happiness.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-eighth Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

THOMAS G. [illegible]
DEPUTY SECRETARY OF STATE
